Dear Pastor and Praying Friends in the ministry,

Greetings from the beautiful Mudon, Mon. I am filled with gratitude as I write to share how God continues to move in mighty ways here. Your prayers and support are a vital part of this journey, and I'm excited to update you on the work God is doing.

God's been good! Our church services have been going well, with new visitors joining us each week. The Davis family from Malawmyine joined us too. We went on soul winning on every Thursday, home visitation on every Saturday. My wife takes in charge of teaching the extension class. All of them came to the service every week.

We're grateful that God continues to draw those who are thirsty for His Word, eagerly seeking a preacher to guide them toward salvation.

I understand that it requires our time, effort, love, passion, kindness, and patience, and God faithfully does His part.

One of the greatest joys has been witnessing new converts come to faith. They have become like family to us. Though moments of loneliness sometimes creep in, their fellowship brings warmth and encouragement, reminding me of the beauty of God's family. I'm rejoicing to see lives transformed by the Gospel.

Recently, I met Aung Kyaw Moe, a Burmese man who had heard about Christianity and Christ but never fully understood the true Gospel—the way to heaven through faith in Jesus.

My heart is burdened for him, as he's yet to understand the love and sacrifice of Jesus that offers eternal life. By God's grace, I was able to share the Gospel with him. In a beautiful moment, Aung Kyaw Moe trusted Christ as his Savior!

Prayer Requests:

1. Pray for Aung Kyaw Moe, his family and other new converts, that they may grow strong in their faith and be rooted in God's Word.
2. Pray for the parents of our students, that we may build relationships with them and lovingly invite them to church. May their hearts be open to the Gospel.
3. Pray for our church's rented house, which we use for services. We need to extend the lease by the last week of this month.
4. Pray for a good used piano for church.
